DISSERTATION AND SOFT SKILL DEVELOPMENT (ORAL PRESENTATIONS)

SEMESTER II

Course Code: DHRD-8

Max. Marks: 100
External: 100
Internal: 00
Pass: 40%
Credits: 2

Course Outcomes (COs)

After the completion of this course, the students will be able to:

CO1: Have an understanding of research areas in human rights

CO2: Identify the research methods appropriate for the human rights topic

CO3: Motivated to contribute to the human rights learning and knowledge

CO4: Suggest innovative ways to deal with human rights issues.

CO5: Identifies with the cause of human rights.

DISSERTATION/ ORAL PRESENTATIONS

Guidelines

- Topic Selection:
  - Students must select a dissertation topic related to Human Rights and Duties, Social Justice, Law, or allied areas.
  - Topics should be original, relevant, and approved by the supervisor/department.
- Length & Format:
  - Word count: 4,000 – 5,000 words.
  - Typed in Times New Roman, 12-point font, 1.5 spacing, A4 size paper.
- Structure of Dissertation:
  - Title Page

    - Acknowledgement
    - Abstract (250–300 words)
    - Introduction (with objectives & methodology)
    - Review of Literature
    - Main Chapters / Analysis
    - Findings & Suggestions
    - Conclusion
    - References
    - Annexures (if any)
- Submit one hard copy and soft copy (PDF) by the notified deadline.
- PowerPoint Presentation.